Judith Content

“Insight and Inspiration”

A full-time studio artist for thirty years, Judith Content has exhibited her work throughout the United States as well as in Japan, Indonesia, Taiwan, the United Kingdom, Canada, Belgium and France. Her work has been included in Quilt National and Quilt Visions as well as currently in three major traveling exhibitions: Craft in America; Expanding Traditions, Masters: Art Quilts and the landmark SAQA exhibition: 12 Voices.

FUTURE LECTURES

October 5 Freddy Moran
New Work Trunk Show

November 2 Christine Barnes
Magic Fabrics, Special Effects

December 7 Holiday Party

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS

Sat., October 3 Freddy Moran
Liberated Wedding Ring
Waiting list only

Sun., November 1 Christine Barnes
Luminosity

For our lecture this evening Judith will offer insights into her explorations of contemporary Japanese shibori dyeing. Over a 30 year career Judith has utilized shibori dyeing whether creating wearable art in the 80's, multi-storied site-specific commissions in the 90's or currently, abstract landscape art quilts. The lecture will explore her unique approach to shibori and other surface design techniques, the inspiration behind her work, and her commitment to strengthening the field of textiles.

Content has work in many permanent collections including the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, The Museum of Contemporary Arts and Design, New York, NY, and the San Jose Museum of Quilts and Textiles in San Jose. Judith currently serves as the President of Studio Art Quilt Associates (SAQA). She has been featured on the television show Simply Quilts and served as a juror for Quilt VISIONS 2009. Her home, studio collections and art work will be featured in the August issue of American Style magazine.

Opportunity Quilt 2009

Congratulations go out to one of our own with the winning ticket for the "MPQG Does Jane" quilt ~ Paulette Logue of Seaside! The winning ticket was drawn at the last night of the Monterey County Fair.

Hospitality

New members were welcomed with a lovely cake provided by Regina Liske. Thanks to her and to Barbara Barrieau, Suzy Campbell, Joan Hughes, Patty Kennedy, Stella Le Pine, Paulette Logue, and Pat Morris. By the way, I did not pass the signup sheet around! I forgot. I did manage to get 4 signatures at the last minute. I do need fruit and veggies. Please call me at 484 5925 if you can bring something. Hospitality is budgeted $100 per year, thus I am limited to water, tea, coffee and supplies! The guild members are responsible for the goodies. Out of the 200+ members there are about 6-8 that sign up. Come on girls and ~ you can do it! Thanks again.

San Jose Museum of Quilts and Textiles

August 4 – October 25, 2009

The World According to Joyce Gross: Quilts from the Dolph Briscoe Center

This exhibition makes a case for the importance of the quilt to the history of American women. This selection of 30 important historical quilts and quilt-related ephemera from the collection amassed by Joyce Gross over 35 years provides a fascinating portal into the discovery of the real value of quilt-making to the lives and creative spirit of American women. Including 30 important quilts dating from 1845 to 1980, this exhibition has an emphasis on appliqué quilts. Included are four by Pine Eisfeller; two of these, The Garden and Tree of Life, were named two of the top 100 quilts of the 20th century.
